Reading

Please read aloud to a grown up for 10 minutes, four times a week.

Remember to keep your Reading Record beautifully neat and up to date.

Literacy

Using your learning about life in Britain during the Second World War, write a poem or a diary to share a person's feelings about the ending of the war. You could write from the perspective of a child, an evacuee or a soldier.

You can write any type of poem you like using plain or lined paper. You could also illustrate your poem or diary.

Remember poems do not have to rhyme.

Please let me know if you need any support or resources to be able to complete the tasks.

We will review your home learning together in class, on Friday 20th July.

Enquiry Homework - Due Friday 20th July
