

C4: Spring Term 1, Honesty - How Are There Two Sides To Every Story?

Science

Is evolution the only perspective?

Classification, evolution and inheritance

Maths

How can we use our knowledge to explore all possibilities in mathematics?

Calculations, Fractions, Statistics, Exploring longitude and latitude

R.E

Is religion the only perspective?

Creation stories from different religions

PSHE -

Relationships

How do I understand other people's viewpoints?

Writing

How do different perspectives shape opinion?

An exploration of viewpoints through diaries and letters.

How do we structure a balanced argument?

Raising the calibre of our language through formal debate

Reading -

My Name is Mina

How does a narrative challenge different perspectives?

Geography

Are humans creating a sustainable future for our planet?

Mapping skills, habitats and our impact on the natural world.

Art

How does an artist interpret the natural world with honesty?

Print making and observational drawing

French

Introducing new verbs and simple sentences

PE

Leadership

Net and Wall Skills

Swimming

The Incredible Journey of Charles Darwin

"We are not here concerned with hopes or fears, only with truth as far as our reason permits us to discover it"

Our class celebration

Is evolution the only perspective?

Is religion the only perspective?

*Honesty -
How Are There Two
Sides To Every Story?*

How does an artist interpret the natural world with honesty?

Fractions

Are humans creating a sustainable future for our planet?

*Honesty -
How Are There Two Sides To Every Story?*