

Class 3 Autumn Term 1

Home is where the heart is.

What changes have I seen?

Value: Belonging

: Change

English

What is an author? How can writing capture the memories of change held by a place?

Prose – Child of Books by Oliver Jeffers

Diary writing – Matchbox Diary by Paul Fieischman

Maths

What is a mathematician?

Place Value

Times Tables

RE

How have religious practises changed here?

Where - religious sites and buildings

Who - census data

PE

What is an athlete?

Fitness

Invasion Games (Hockey)

Science

What is a scientist? How has electricity changed our lives? How can we use it?

What is electricity?

Investigations into brightness of bulbs

Making a clay house light

PSHE / Growth Mindset

How do I belong and how can I help others to belong?

Being me in my world

Art

What is an artist? How can an Artist present change?

Author box frames

Clay house lights

Guided Reading

How can an author use their voice to share memories?

Memorial by Shaun Tan

History

What is a historian? How can I use different sources to represent changes over time?

Timelines

Primary and secondary sources

Census data

DT

How can food evoke our memories of a place and time?

Memories of making

Sensory memories

Cookery skills

Geography

What is a geographer? How can we use different mapping techniques to record and read permanence and change?

Exploding maps

Music

What is a musician? Can I play an instrument with increasing skill?

Learning to play recorders

Computing

What skills do I need to research change?

Internet safety

Internet research

Google earth