

Writing

How are ancient tales rooted in their times?

How are they used to tell the story of the development of civilisations?

Beowulf - Kevin Crossley-Holland

Beowulf - Michael Morpurgo

Viking Voyagers - Jack Tite

Norse Myths; tales of Odin, Thor and Loki - Kevin Crossley-Holland

Maths

What makes a mathematician - the process of solving or having a solution?

Multiplication and Division

Fractions, Decimals and Percentages

PSHE

How can we celebrate success and embrace diversions as part of the journey to achieving our goals?

Dreams and goals

PE

How does a gymnast aspire to be great?

Swimming & Gymnastics (Counter balance & Counter tension)

DT

How can the design and manufacturing process make a product with a specific task?

Designing an alarm system to protect an ancient artefact

Computing

How can we use technology to implement a programme?

Programming concepts: selection in quizzes

History

Who were the Vikings and why was this period defined by conflict and the quest for power?

- Who were the Vikings and when did they arrive in Britain?
- Why did the Anglo-Saxons fight so hard against the Vikings and what motivated the Vikings to keep raiding and invading?
- What political and economic influences perpetuated the struggle for greatness?
- What social and military influences perpetuated the struggle for greatness?
- What religious influences drove the struggle for greatness?
- What events brought about the collapse of the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings?

-Viking raids: case study of Lindisfarne, King Alfred's resistance and Danelaw

-Athelstan (First King of all of England) and King Cnut

-Edward the Confessor and events of 1066

Music

How does music inspire?

Charanga: You've got a friend

Preparations for Christmas

RE

U2.1 What does it mean if Christians believe God is holy and loving?

Rockhead Class Autumn Term 2

ASPIRATION

What is Greatness?