

Class 3 Autumn 1

Belonging

Home Is Where The Heart Is

Writing

What is an author? How can writing capture the memories of change held by a place?

- The House by Roberto Innocenti
- Diary writing – Matchbox Diary by Paul Fleischman

Reading

How can an author use their voice to share memories?

- The House by Roberto Innocenti
 - Memorial by Shaun Tan

Science

Being a Scientist – Keep asking the questions
Plants – Their Parts and Functions

- Roots, stems, leaves and flowers
 - Growth and Nutrition
 - Water
 - Pollination
 - Seeds

Maths

Being a Mathematician

- Place Value
- Addition & Subtraction
- Times Tables

RE

What is it like for someone to follow God?

- Consider how the bible is a 'sacred' text and its layout.
- Consider how the stories Noah and Abraham may enhance the idea of faith.

PE

Being an Athlete

- Swimming: Every Tuesday
- Netball: Every Thursday

Geography

What is a Geographer?
How can we use different mapping techniques to record and read permanence and change?

- Settlements
- Mapping
- Our village

French

Being a Linguist

- My family & me
- Key French phonemes
- Talking about me

PSHE

Being Me In My World

- Being part of the class tribe and a school citizen
 - Rights, responsibilities and democracy
 - Pupil leadership
 - Rewards and consequences
- Consider how our actions effect ourselves and others
 - Writing and owning our Learning Charter
- Breathing techniques to calm our bodies and minds